THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

was founded in 1922 with the help of Rudolf Steiner, Austrian educator and esotericist. The Christian Community recognizes Christ's deed of life and death as the pivotal renewal in humanity's history. The church is centered around the seven sacraments in their renewed form.

There is no formal written dogma. Members are encouraged to form independent judgements in religious matters. Each priest has the freedom to teach anything which does not contradict the content of the sacraments. As a result, the teachings are rich, varied and evolving and can incorporate such ideas as reincarnation and karma, a truly cosmic conception of Christ, and the role of spiritual beings at all levels of existence.

SANFORD MILLER has been connected to the work of Rudolf Steiner and Anthroposophy for over 35 years. Following his university degree (Religious Studies) he lived and worked in a Camphill Community, in Aberdeen, Scotland. He then studied in Stuttgart, Germany for the priesthood in the Christian Community. The Christian Community is a movement for religious renewal out of esoteric Christianity. He was ordained in 1982. He has worked in Germany, Boston and, currently, in Sacramento.
